At MeMe, LLC, we value your satisfaction with our products and services. We understand that circumstances may arise where you need to request a refund, and we are here to assist you through the process. Please review the following information regarding our refund policy, which aligns with consumer legislation and ensures a fair and transparent experience for all our customers.

Refund Eligibility

To be eligible for a refund, you must meet the following criteria:

1. The item(s) must be returned in their original packaging.
2. The packaging must be unopened.
3. The refund request must be genuine and align with our terms and conditions.

Please note that our refund policies may vary depending on the specific product or service you have purchased. Additionally, it's essential to be aware that violations of our terms and conditions may result in the denial of refund requests, even if they are made within the designated refund period.

Refund Procedures

If you meet the refund criteria, the refund will be processed in the following manner:

- The refund will be issued in the same form of payment used for the purchase.
- Your refund will be processed promptly, and the credited amount will be automatically applied to your credit card or original payment method within 10-15 days.

Late or Missing Refunds

If you have not received your refund within the expected timeframe, please follow these steps:

1. Check your bank account to confirm if the refund has been processed.
2. Contact your credit card company, as there may be a delay in posting the refund.
3. Reach out to your bank, as some banks may have processing times before refunds are reflected in your account.

If you have completed these steps and have not received your refund, please do not hesitate to contact us for further assistance.
